HARD AT WORK ON THE NEW DAM FOR PARIS.

"Have you been down to see the work on the new dam?" is now the leading question of the hour and day. Work is progressing as fast as circumstances will permit. A large force of men are engaged in clearing away the debris, mud, dirt and rock from the bed of the old mill pool, which has been pumped out ready for the work. The work of drilling is being done by hand, the steam drills that were ordered for the purpose not having arrived.

There has been much speculation as to the design and dimensions of the new structure, so that the following data has been given out for the information of the public: When the preliminary work has been completed the solid rock will be excavated to a depth of twelve inches, to serve as a foundation for the dam proper. The dam will be eighteen feet at the base, with an additional excavation of a three-foot channel in the solid rock, extending lengthwise in order to prevent any penetration of water beneath the structure. The face or upper side of the dam will be vertical, the lower side being concave, rounding at the top to twelve inches. The extreme height will be approximately nineteen feet above the solid rock. The dam will be built in four sections, having construction joints at intervals of thirty-two feet. The dam will be located with reference to the old dam in close proximity to the east end, the end next to the plant of the Paris Milling Co., but the west end will be down the stream distance of forty-seven feet from the old dam.

MRS E. M. DICKSON SLIGHTLY INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. E. M. Dickson was slightly injured and Mr. Dickson considerably shaken up as the result of an automobile accident which occurred on the Cynthiana pike, near the residence of Mr. Miller Ward, Wednesday afternoon.

The machine in which Mr. and Mrs. Dickson were riding was coming down the long hill near the Ward home, when a heavy loaded wagon came into the turn which at that point is very sharp. In endeavoring to avoid the wagon, the machine swerved and ran into a deep gully a few feet from the wagon, then a telephone pole at the side of the road, which stopped its further progress. Mr. and Mrs. Dickson were thrown to the bottom of the car, Mrs. Dickson receiving slight bruises and abrasions of the skin, but being otherwise unharmed. Mr. Dickson escaped with a severe shaking up. The car was slightly damaged. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dickson were congratulating them yesterday on the narrow escape from more serious injury.

A VOTE FOR BOSWORTH WILL MEAN MUCH TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Vote for Henry M. Bosworth for Auditor. He and his intimate friends are workers at the polls at all regular elections. The party needs these kind of men for their nominees. He will add strength to the ticket in November. He is efficient in office and will make an official the people can depend on. (22-3)

ROBBERY SUSPECT ARRESTED HERE TAKEN TO RICHMOND

James Bennett, aged about twenty-three years, was arrested at the Fordham Hotel, in this city by Patrolman Robert Lusk, on suspicion of being implicated in the recent robbery of the safe at the grocery of Mr. Tilford Burnett, on Winchester street.

On being searched at the jail papers were found on his person showing that he was wanted in Richmond on a charge of burglary. The Richmond authorities were notified, and Sheriff Whitlock, of Madison county, came to Paris and returned the prisoner to Richmond. Bennett was recently indicted by the Madison grand jury on the charge of breaking into the warehouse of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., at Silver Creek, in Madison county, and taking a lot of whisky, which he sold. The alleged offense was committed over a year ago. Bennett left the county, and his whereabouts were unknown until receipt of the information from Patrolman Lusk, in Paris.

PAYING NO ATTENTION TO ORDINANCE.

Although the ordinance prohibiting the pasting or tacking of cardboard, paper or metal signs or advertising matter of any kind on the telephone and telegraph poles in this city, is still in effect, absolutely no attention is being paid to it, and violations are of daily occurrence. Placards setting forth the candidacy of various office seekers decorate the poles, while all kinds of advertising signs can be found on them also. But what good is an ordinance, when it is never enforced?

BLACK'S POLITICAL RECORD.

M. M. Logan Issues Statement Charging Governor Black With Loaining Caleb Powers $2,500.00 and Bolting the Democratic Ticket, Following His Defeat For Governor in 1903.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF KENTUCKY:

My attention has been called to the fact that within the past few weeks certain followers of Governor Black, especially the small office holding and office-seeking class are industriously circulating over the State several varieties of campaign gossip, which they think will injure Chief Justice John D. Carroll, all of which is untrue.

One of the campaign stories in circulation is that Judge Carroll bolted Goebel. The facts in this case I am glad to give to the public. It will be remembered that several years before his race for the Governorship in 1899, William Goebel had the misfortune to kill a man named John Sanford. Judge Carroll's wife, as is well known in Central Kentucky, was a Miss Sanford, a cousin of the man slain by Goebel.

At the election that year, Judge Carroll refrained from voting for Mr. Goebel, voting the remainder of the Democratic ticket. He did not vote for Goebel's Republican opponent and has never voted for a Republican in his life. A few years later, with all the facts known, he was unanimously elected Appellate Court Commissioner by a Democratic Court.

The plan is to give the same character of work that teachers would receive should they journey to some far off educational center, at a great expense.

Through the generosity of Dr. F. C. Button, of the Department of Education, Frankfort, Ky., Dr. Lewis B. Moore, Howard University, Washington, D. C., and Supt. J. B. Caywood, Bourbon county, we are able to offer this rare opportunity to the teachers of this section of the State.

We feel that we may count on every teacher, city and county, who has not found it possible to go away to Summer school this Summer, to enroll the first day to further prepare himself or herself to do more effective work as a teacher where he or she may labor.

The sessions of the Institute are not limited to teachers. Others, engaged in community and club work or any other activities, may take advantage of the meeting.

Remember there will be no tuition charged; this Institute is absolutely free to all. Each will be expected to pay an institute fee of $2.00, which entitles one to the entire session without further charge. Those who may wish to attend that live too far to return home each day, may secure board and lodging in Paris at reasonable rates.

ROAD FUNDS BASED ON FULL COUNTY VALUATION.

The entire property of a county which was listed for taxation should be used in determining the amount that the various counties are entitled to receive from the State roads fund. This opinion was given Rodman Wiley, Commissioner of Public Roads, by Assistant Attorney General D. O. Myatt, in construing Section 435x-18 of the Kentucky Statutes. Commissioner Wiley wanted to know whether the assessed valuation of the property of the various counties is to be construed as the valuation of the property listed for the purposes of State taxation, or whether it is confined to that class of property which is subject to the county or local taxation.

The purpose of the section, Myatt says, was to classify the various counties of the State for the purpose of participating in the State roads fund so as to assist the poorer counties in carrying on the road work upon the State aid plan.

AUTO THIEVES BUSY.

Rev. S. R. Hawkins, who has been conducting a revival meeting at the Mt. Carmel Christian Church, in this county, left his machine in a lot near the home of Mr. Ewalt Haley, while he went to the church on an errand of business. In his absence some one removed a tire from a wheel, stole another extra tire and all the tools from the tool box.

At the same place last Sunday night the thieves stole all the tools from an automobile belonging to Mr. Wm. Ewalt, of Lair. The machine had been left standing in the rear of the church, while Mr. Ewalt was attending the meeting.

A car belonging to a Mr. Sutherland, of Fayette county, which had been stolen from Blue Grass Park, near Lexington, was found here. The car was abandoned on the Hume and Bedford pike, near the intersection of that pike with the Mayfield and Lexington pike by Bud Adair and Elmer McGinnis. Mr. Sutherland was notified and came to Paris and returned home in the car.

Requisition papers for the return to this State of Mrs. Frank Jones and Harris Bailey, both colored, were secured by Chief of Police Link, who, accompanied by Mr. Morris Stern, went to Chicago, Tuesday, to secure the prisoners. They were charged with stealing a Buick machine belonging to Mr. G. T. McCauley, of Cynthiana, who was stolen from the Chautauqua grounds in that city, last week, while Mr. McCauley and family were attending the performance. The police arrested two negro boys charged with taking the machine for a joy ride. They admitted their guilt, it being their second offense.

BUICK 1920 MODELS

Show Marked Improvement In Refinement and Construction.
Prices Announced.

With the announcement of our new 1920 model "K" series, says Mr. C. S. Ball, local dealer, and the marked improvement in refinements, brings our new series before the buying public with an instant stamp of approval—and invariably the expression is made, how such beautiful types and thoroughly constructed models can be manufactured at the prices announced, with the high high cost of materials and labor entering into the

To still maintain the 1919 price upon some models with only a slight increase upon the coupe and sedans, coupled with increased quality and improvements is the result of strong purchasing power and careful consideration on the part of the Buick Motor Company. Prices instantly become a secondary consideration in comparison with the different models, as hundreds of these models have already been sold by dealers upon a slight unseen plan, buyers having complete confidence in the Buick Motor Company to manufacture a series of models retaining the Buick high standard of quality first, price later. True to all former policies and backed by their integrity, "There is not a single part entering into the construction of the 1920 Buick car that is not as good as, or better than the same part used at any previous time," and further that the design has been improved and quality elevated. These model "K" series excel in finish and all materials, including upholstery and every component part that enters into their construction.

It will be a pleasure for you to see these new series—inspect every detail, check over every improvement and part that has been employed in their manufacture—acquaint yourself with the method of painting, note the fenders, steering wheel, tops, upholstery, comfortable seats, new style windshields, improved top materials and inspect the motor and chassis construction, see the staunchness of all improvements that the best engineering talent in existence can produce, combining power, speed, beauty, value and economy, thereby making the Buick car a selected investment which commands the attention of thousands of other discriminating buyers and careful observers.

ILLITERACY CAMPAIGN OPENS IN BOURBON.

The campaign for raising the sum of $500 as Bourbon county's quota in the State-wide illiteracy movement, was inaugurated in this city and county yesterday through the City Federation of Clubs. Mrs. Frank P. Lowry, of Paris, is chairman for Bourbon county in this campaign. Mrs. Lowry divided the city and county into districts, each having a chairman and assistants, in order that a systematic campaign may be conducted and completed in a few days.

It is the purpose of the promoters of the plan, of whom Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart is the leader, to ask the people of the State for the sum of $20,000, to be used for the purpose of eradicating illiteracy in the State and bringing the old Commonwealth up to the standard in the matter of education.

The ladies representing the various clubs have been busily engaged in making their rounds, and it is safe to say that the quota assigned to Bourbon county will be raised in a very short time, as it is well known that Bourbon county has far exceeded its quota in every campaign in the past.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

Worth The Trouble.

The other Sunday we took a walk, and before going very far, we were attracted by a crowd of people on a certain lawn, lined up in front of a camera. In the front row were several little tots and back of them, according to height were ranged larger boys and girls, young and middle-aged men and women. In the center sat an old couple, all smiles, waiting to be snapped.

We were in on the secret. The elder young folks were the children of the old couple, while the little ones were the grandchildren. It was just a little family reunion. But how happy those old people were—happy and proud.

As we continued our stroll we passed a young couple and the fellow was chauffeuring a go-cart. He did not see us. His eyes were all for baby. All smiles—smiles that wouldn't come off.

Farther down we saw an older couple sitting on their veranda. Children never had blessed their home. They sat there—tired. And it was then we fell to philosophizing.

Theodore Roosevelt had been an ardent advocate of large families, not for sentimental reasons, but for national. But our viewpoint on this occasion was purely of the home. The children are a source of worry from the day of birth until the wedding day. And where are found a number of children together we usually find quarrels. But after all, life is rather empty without them—now isn't it?

When a young woman who has loved the butterfly life becomes a mother, we are told that it is going to go hard with her, or else she will not give her baby the proper care. But go into her home. Watch her with that babe. Is she happy? Our guess is "yes." Can a banquet or a ball with all the attendant glitter, take for an instant the place of a kiss on those baby lips (against Doc's advice of course). Ask her.

When we saw the childless couple we did not feel that they deserved reproach—only pity. And the other couple with youth all around them had all that might make life worth the living.

Oddities of Our Language.

A foreigner visitor looking at a picture of a number of vessels, said: "See what a flock of ships!" He was told that a number of ships assembled together was not called a "flock" but a "fleet."

He might have been told also that a fleet of ships is called a flock, and for his further guidance in mastering our language, it could have been explained that a flock of girls is called a bevy; that a bevy of wolves is called pack; that a pack of thieves is called a gang; that a gang of angels is called a host; that a host of porpoises is called a shoal; that a shoal of cattle is called a herd; a herd of children is called a troop; a troop of partridges is a covey; a covey of beauties, a galaxy; a galaxy of ruffians, a horde; a horde of rubbish, a heap; a heap of oxen, a drove; a drove of blackbirds, a mob; a mob of whales, a school; a school of worshippers, a congregation, and a congregation of engineers, a corps.

Force Negro Bureau To Close

In their efforts at "economy" and to try to make a record at retrenchment, Republicans in Congress have abolished the only exclusively negro bureau that has ever existed in the history of the American Government.

The bureau was the Division of Negro Economics of the Department of Labor. The division was established early in 1918 and had as its head Dr. George E. Haynes, of Tennessee. There were ten assistants and clerks in the Washington office and field supervisors were in twelve or fourteen States, largely in the South. The division had supervision of practically all of the Department of Labor's work that affected the negro.

Maintenance of the bureau last year cost only about $50,000. Senators Swanson, of Virginia, and Mc-
Kellar, of Tennessee, Democrats, made a fight to continue the appropriation for the division, but the Republican majority in both branches of Congress defeated the measure and the bureau ceased to exist with the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1.

The Universal Language.

The real universal language, the one that is understood everywhere without study is the motion picture.

This has been demonstrated recently by a number of American exporters, who are using the movie for such difficult tasks as selling shoes to Asiatics, who always have gone barefoot, and soap to natives who regard water exclusively as a beverage.

The movie does not enter easily into domestic trade, or even into trade between equally civilized countries. But when it comes to trading with the hinterland people of the tropics, who are just becoming acquainted with modern conveniences, the movie is a boon.

A great difficulty with American trade has encountered in foreign countries is the cautious attitude of natives toward a new proposition. For example, it is no easy matter to convince the people of an Indian village that an American chair is a desirable piece of furniture. The native sees chairs in process of construction from harmless pieces of wood. He gets used to the idea of a chair.

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals, so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite.

When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation, as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it.

During the French Revolution 18,602 persons were guillotined by sentence of the Revolutionary tribunal, of whom 13,623 were of plebian origin.

The Cave of Winds is a suitable name for the Senate Chamber these days.

LIVESTOCK MARKET ACTIVE

The livestock market in this vicinity has been very active in the past few days, the dealers making a large number of shipments. George K. Pepper sold to Caywood & McClintock forty-one head of fat cattle averaging 1,500 pounds, for 15c per pound. Nine hundred lambs, which cost Caywood & McClintock 15 to 15½ cents per pound, were shipped by them Friday night to the Eastern market. Mr. Richard H. Wills, of Paris, who was recently appointed local representative for The Lynchburg, S. C., Livestock Co., shipped a carload Friday night, for which he paid the following prices: Horses, $125 to $150 a head; mules, $250 to $225 a head.

Jessie R. Letton, of Paris, and Walter H. Meng, of near North Middleton, attended the big sale of hogs held by the McKee Bros., at Versailles, Friday afternoon. Sixty bred gilts and young gilts were sold for an average of $360 each. Two went under the hammer at $1,000 each. Following the sale a complimentary dinner, at which fifty-three guests were present, was given at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington.

SHRINERS SEIZE CHILD'S LUNCH

She made only $7 a week, and she was wondering how she was going to spend the two weeks' vacation which her employer had offered her. She reasoned rightly that $7 could not take her very far. But she did not know that Yaarrab Temple of Shriners was passing through Louisville from Atlanta to Indianapolis.

As she darted past The Seelbach on her way to work she was stopped by a man dressed in the garb of a fiction character which she had often seen on advertisements for cigarettes. He stopped her. She was frightened.

And then a lot more men looking like "cigarette signs" gather about her and sang songs in funny languages.

They jerked a lunch basket containing an apple, two sandwiches, an onion and a little bit of lettuce from her arm. Then she cried. They took all she had for dinner and dumped it out.

But one of the number jumped upon a suitcase and spoke to the multitude of red fezes while the others locked hands and danced about her.

Failure of many policy holders to continue payments was attributed largely to the fact that the Bureau is unable to communicate with them as 30 per cent of the addressees of discharged soldiers are incorrect.

To maintain constant personal contact with policyholders, the committee recommended that the Bureau establish local representatives in each State or in such districts as it may seem advisable to divide the country.

To maintain constant personal contact with policyholders, the committee recommended that the Bureau establish local representatives in each State or in such districts as it may seem advisable to divide the country.

As she darted past The Seelbach on her way to work she was stopped by a man dressed in the garb of a fiction character which she had often seen on advertisements for cigarettes. He stopped her. She was frightened.

And then a lot more men looking like "cigarette signs" gather about her and sang songs in funny languages.

They jerked a lunch basket containing an apple, two sandwiches, an onion and a little bit of lettuce from her arm. Then she cried. They took all she had for dinner and dumped it out.

But one of the number jumped upon a suitcase and spoke to the multitude of red fezes while the others locked hands and danced about her.

She was only $7 a week, and she was wondering how she was going to spend the two weeks' vacation which her employer had offered her. She reasoned rightly that $7 could not take her very far. But she did not know that Yaarrab Temple of Shriners was passing through Louisville from Atlanta to Indianapolis.

Failure of many policy holders to continue payments was attributed largely to the fact that the Bureau is unable to communicate with them as 30 per cent of the addressees of discharged soldiers are incorrect.

WOMAN'S PART OF STATE FAIR BEING BOOSTED

A bulletin containing the list of premiums offered in the Woman's Department of the Kentucky State Fair, which will be held September 8 to 11, in Louisville, has been issued in advance of the regular catalogue in order that women of the State may have ample opportunity to be advised in regard to the rules, regulations and prizes of the department.

Mrs. Harry McCarthy, of Nicholasville, is superintendent of the woman's department. An effort has been made by the department to interest women of the State and arouse enthusiasm in woman's work by increasing the premiums and enlarging the classifications as an incentive to enter competition at the Kentucky State Fair, where the standard of work will be raised from year to year if women will respond to the opportunity.

Entries in the woman's department will close August 25.

SUMMER COMPLAINT QUICKLY RELIEVED.

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept at hand by every family.

HIGH COST OF MEN'S CLOTHES, MAY BE HIGHER NEXT YEAR

An increase of 100 per cent. in the cost of men's clothing was predicted for next summer by H. Simons, who presided at the opening of the American Designers' Association's annual convention, in New York City.

Some slight compensations, however, are to be granted, as coats will be longer, shoulders broader and chests deeper. In addition to this, Mr. Simms said, gaudy linings of alic blue, orange and similar brilliant hues will be in vogue, while vests will be cut lower to permit a greater display of dazzling shirts. He stated that no departure in the present style of trousers would be noticed.

"Jazz styles," so called on account of their freakish cuts, will continue popular with the young "flappers."

Blackberries are nearly as high as strawberries used to be unless you pick them yourself.

BOURBON CROP CONDITIONS.

Farmers now report that their crops are needing rains. There have been intermittent showers, but not enough to do much good. The corn is in that stage of development now that calls for a great deal of moisture. In order to bring it to full maturity good soaking rains will be necessary. Garden corn for table purposes is coming to the market freely and retailing at very reasonable prices.

The tobacco crop is said to be uneven and has been making a very slow growth. The early planted portion of the crop is practically ready to be topped and maturing for early housing in August will soon be a reality. Threshing is being prosecuted vigorously. The yield of wheat is from ten to fifteen bushels to the acre, though one crop that is being threshed on the farm of Mr. Brutus Wheat, near Paris, is said to have averaged twenty-three bushels to the acre. Haymaking while the sun shines has also been good and a fine crop has been assured. Several loads of new hay have been sold on the local market for $20 to $25 per ton.

KICKED BY A MULE.

Mr. George Conkright, a farmer of near Paris, was brought to the office of Drs. Kenney & Stoeckinger, in this city, yesterday afternoon, suffering from dangerous injuries inflicted by a kick from a mule.

Mr. Conkright had been in his barn driving out some chickens, when as he passed the mule, the animal suddenly launched out at him with a vicious flurry of flying hoofs. Mr. Conkright was struck over the left eye, laying the flesh bare, and exposing the eye socket, probably injuring the sight, and his skull was fractured in two places, as shown by a later examination made at the Masonic Memorial Hospital, where he was removed. An operation will be performed at the hospital to-day by Dr. Stoeckinger. It is thought that Conkright will recover.

FIELD DAY FOR AUTO ACCIDENTS

Tuesday was a field day for automobile accidents, at least three taking place that day on Main street. A machine ran into a buggy at the corner of Main and Sixth streets, tearing a wheel off of the buggy and giving the occupants a genuine scare. A delivery boy, mounted on a bicycle, in attempting to get around a man-hole in the street at the corner of Main and Seventh, ran into a machine coming into the corner from Seventh. The boy was slightly bruised, but otherwise unharmed. Two machines ran together at the corner of Eighth and Main, both being slightly damaged. There may have been other accidents, but they were not reported.

PLAYING GAME OF TTT-FOR-TAT.

The City Tax Commissioners have been busy for the past few weeks increasing the tax rate on Paris real estate, and the owners of the real estate have been equally busy increasing the rent to be paid by their tenants. In almost every instance where the owner has been notified of an increase in his assessed property valuation his tenant has been notified of an increase in rent, and, as it is almost impossible to find a vacant house in Paris the increase has been submitted to.

BIG SALES OF WOOL.

Clarke & Young have sold their purchases of 40,000 pounds of wool, which they bought this season for prices ranging from fifty to sixty cents per pound, for a good profit.

The wool supply of this county this year will total about 85,000 pounds. The lamb crop will come close to 50,000 pounds, and the two combined will net the farmers of the county considerably above $500,000.

TAILOR SHOP EMPLOYEE SKIPS WITH EMPLOYERS' FUNDS.

Doing the "barber shop rag" merrily to the tune of bullets from Patrolman George W. Judy's revolver, Gilbert Huffman, twenty-one, colored, sped swiftly through the atmosphere surrounding the Louisville & Nashville yards Tuesday morning in an effort to escape the pursuing officer.

Huffman had been in the employ of Logan Ayers, colored, who conducts a tailor shop and clothes cleaning establishment over the barber shop of his father, John Ayers, on Main street, as bushelman. Last Monday Ayers changed his clothes, and thought he had removed all the contents from the pockets. When he reached home he took an inventory, and discovered to his amazement that he had inadvertently left in the rear pocket of the trousers a roll of bills amounting to $90.

Ayers returned to his place of business for the purpose of instituting a search for the money. He found both the trousers and the money gone. Huffman had also disappeared. Suspicion naturally pointed to the missing man. Patrolman Judy was put on the trail. Going to the Louisville & Nashville Tenth street passenger station he located Huffman. He essayed a getaway, and the patrolman went after him. The chase led through the L. & N. yards into a cornfield adjacent, where the negro disappeared and has not since been located. Patrolman Judy fired four shots at the fleeing man, and believes that at least one of the bullets found its mark.

It is alleged that Huffman had spent a portion of the money taken from Ayers' trousers before he boarded the train, and this fact led to his being located so soon. The authorities of surrounding towns have been furnished with a good description, and have been asked to be on the lookout for Huffman.

Patrolman Judy learned, incidentally, that Huffman had attended a dance in Mt. Sterling, Tuesday night, and that, late in the afternoon he had purchased a suit of clothes, tan shoes, silk underwear, silk shirt and new hat. These purchases accounted for a part of the money which it is alleged he appropriated.

The wheat had just been threshed and stacked, awaiting transportation to market.

CLIPPING BRINGS MEMORIES OF OLD BOURBON FAIR.

Years ago the old Bourbon Fair, at that time the oldest agricultural fair in the United States, was the Mecca to which hundreds turned each year, for there they renewed old acquaintances of the long ago, and made new ones. For many years it reigned supreme as the greatest fair in the country. In late years it disappeared and with it the old-time hospitality that made Bourbon country famous.

A few days ago THE NEWS man, in hunting through a pile of clippings, came upon one relating to the old Bourbon Fair, printed in the Ninth Legion, published at Cincinnati by Samuel Pike, one of the pioneer publishers and editors of his day. The article, which bore date of Saturday, September 12, 1860, under the heading "The Bourbon Fair," is reproduced below, believing that it will be of interest to the readers of THE NEWS:

"The Bourbon Fair."

"This grand af-fair commenced on Tuesday last. The morning was unfavorable; still a respectable crowd was in attendance. On Wednesday, hundreds who would have been there, were attracted to Lexington to hear the Nation's favorite address the people, and consequently, the turnout was not so large as usual. On that day, however, it was given out (and the report gained credence) that the Hon. John C. Breckinridge would be present on Thursday, and perhaps, address the people. This was enough to arouse the people of Bourbon, and the surrounding counties, and early Thursday morning they began to pour in from every direction, and long before noon there were more people present than we ever saw assembled, upon the same grounds, on any former occasion.

"The day was unpropitious, yet the display of stock was all that could be reasonably expected, and everything passed off harmoniously and to the satisfaction of most persons present.

"The great feature of the concern was Industrial Hall, a large circular building in which all the works of art and industry were displayed for examination. We were on the grounds but a few hours on Thursday, and could give this grand feature of the fair only a partial and very imperfect examination. W. W. Pike's Rotary Printing Press in full motion, throwing off impressions at the rate of 2,000 per hour, and we were pleased to learn that he was the recipient of all the premiums offered for the different kinds of printing, offered by the Association. The blankets, jeans, quilts, counterpanes, and other specimens of ladies' handiwork, were beautiful and could not well be excelled by any competitors, and some of the specimens of embroidery were truly fine. Indeed, everything in that department was about as good as it could be, and we only regret that we did not have time to give it a more extended examination and notice.

"To the politeness of our old friends, W. W. Mitchell, S. M. Hibbler and A. M. Brown, Esqrs., we are indebted for polite attentions and the freedom of the Fair grounds during our visit. They are gentlemanly officers and discharge their respective duties in a manner highly creditable to themselves and the society.

"After having dined sumptuously with some Covington friends, at the board of a junior member of the Pike family, we left for home in the stage, where we arrived about dark on Thursday evening.

"Notwithstanding we were highly pleased with all we saw while there, we cannot avoid thinking that our Bourbon friends will have to better another year, or fall behind their competitors. Other societies have sprung up in the adjoining counties and in different parts of the State, which bid fair not only to rival, but to excel 'Old Bourbon' in agricultural, horticultural and mechanical displays, and are consequently attracting a large amount of public attention. It is not for us to say in what particulars the Bourbon Fairs shall be modified. We leave that to the members; but we say in all candor, that our Bourbon friends must look well to their laurels, or their neighbors will outstrip them in all that pertains to the glory of such exhibitions."

Gov. James D. Black

A vote for Black in August is a vote for Democratic success in November.

HE'S A SURE WINNER!

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF THE THIRD RAILROAD COMMISSION DISTRICT

I find that it is impossible for the two candidates, E. C. Kash and myself of the Ninth Congressional District, to make a proper race for the Railroad Commissionership under the peculiar existing circumstances. I find Mr. John B. Eversole, from the Tenth District, which already has a candidate for Secretary of State, asking that he receive this Railroad Commissioner nomination. This is in spite of the fact that strong, capable and able Tenth District Republican, the Honorable James W. Turner, of Paintsville, at Lexington, withdrew from the Railroad Commissioner's race in order that the Hon. Fred A. Vaughn, from the Tenth District, could have the nomination for Secretary of State. Mr. Eversole is not equally fair. I think more of the Ninth District and my friends and associates there, and of justice and fair treatment to my friends in the Ninth District, than I do of this office. I think it right to leave it to the Republicans of the Railroad Commissioner District to say whether the Ninth District shall have representation or not. I therefore am withdrawn from the race.

Very Respectfully,
(adv) CLAY CISCO.

KENTUCKY POLITICS

Carroll and Black are both gentlemen and neither of them are indulging in any mud slinging which is to their credit and also to the credit of the Democratic party.

E. C. Kash, of Breathitt County, seems to be extensively advertising his campaign for the Republican nomination for Railroad Commissioner in the Third District.

Henry Bosworth will attach the Democratic nomination for State Auditor with as much ease as an elder brother appropriates the baby's stick of peppermint candy, if reports received by him from every district in the State the past week prove authentic.

In a speech at Shelbyville, Governor Black is said to have denied that he is in anyway connected with the Stanley machine. The Governor, it is said also, denied that he is a politician because he "can't be used."

Judge Carroll, speaking at Cadiz is reported to have said that office-holders are in the possession of Governor Black, and wants to know why Bob Green was not reappointed to the State Tax Commission along with Mr. Ringo.

With only a few days intervening before August 2, the day of the State primary, it looks like the "land-slide," claimed by managers of the one and the other, is going to refuse each of the two outstanding candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor, according to news received from all over Kentucky towns last week.

Answering the letter of James A. McKinzie, Hopkinsville lawyer, Pitler Black, son of Gov. James D. Black, said that filial duty was stronger than party ties, in explaining his part in the father's campaign. He declared he would support Judge John D. Carroll for Governor if the latter should be nominated in the Democratic primary.

Expense accounts of candidates in the August primary are being dumped into the office of Secretary of State Lewis. P. J. Noel, of Harrodsburg, has the largest expense account of any of the candidates for Governor. He spent $5,198.16, most of which was for advertising. Governor James D. Black has spent $4,563.68. Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, spent the smallest sum, $276. Judge John D. Carroll spent $6,300.

The race for the Republican nomination for railroad commissioner in the Third Kentucky district has narrowed down to two candidates—E. C. Kash, of Jackson, brother of Com-

REVENUE MEN VISIT PARIS.

Representatives from the office of Elwood Hamilton, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Seventh District, were in Paris several days this week. They were checking up and looking up delinquents who have not paid their war tax. It was not generally known that a tax was imposed on every admission ticket to entertainments, dances, etc., where an admission price was charged so that the promoters of such enterprises will have to account to the revenue men in the final settlement.

TAKE IT DOWN.

Now, speaking seriously, and in all earnestness, isn't it about time to remove that unsightly old bill board from the court house lawn? With its tattered and torn fragments of paper flapping in the breeze, it presents anything but a good appearance. Visitors to the city remark about it and wonder why it is left there to detract from the general appearance of the handsomest court house in the State. It has served its purpose. Take it down!

RECORD PRICE FOR CATTLE

Cattle reached the highest price of the season in the local market when Mr. James Caldwell, one of the expert cattle raisers of the county, sold to Montie Fox, of Danville, seventy head of black polled Angus cattle, weighing about 1,400 per head, for fourteen cents per pound. Mr. Caldwell is feeding a carload of twenty head of white-faced cattle, which he will exhibit at the State Fair in Louisville, and later at the World's Livestock Show to be held in Chicago.

P. S.—AFTER GIVING THIS TO THE PRESS, REPORT BY TELEGRAM SAYS THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY WELL HAS COME IN GOOD; MUCH EXCITEMENT. WILL REPORT LATER.

KENTUCKY CROP REPORT SHOWS LARGE INCREASES.

A tremendous tobacco crop of approximately 469,893,000 pounds, due to increased acreage, and a wheat yield of about 12,892,000 bushels, are the features of the Government crop report for Kentucky issued Saturday.

This month's preliminary estimate of the acreage of corn indicates a crop of about 91,066,000 bushels.

The tobacco acreage might have been even greater had the weather been uniformly favorable, but as tobacco can be set in July and still make a good crop, setting is still in progress in some places and the acreage shows an increase of about 16 per cent over the State as a whole.

The following is the report of conditions in the Fifth District, of which Bourbon is a part:

Considerable tobacco set or re-set first week of July. Corn late but growing well, some weedy. Wheat lodged and some badly damaged by continued rains; other sections of this district had much dry weather.

Bluegrass seed good in most sections north of Kentucky River, but light south of river. Many new tobacco barns going up.

TWICE MARRIED.

Twice married is the unusual record of 16-year-old Mary Thacker, of Breathitt county. She was married in Whitesburg, Ky., to Ewens Adams, aged 24, of Colly Creek. It was the second marriage of both the bride and the groom. They met for the first time about a week ago and it was a case of "love at first sight."

The Governor of Pennsylvania has refused to give Harry Thaw up and this relieves the country of any more prominence of this disgusting creature.

GOV. BLACK ENCOURAGES 'MOONLIGHT SCHOOL' MOVEMENT

Kentucky's Governor has issued the following message of encouragement and appreciation of the moonlight school teachers and those who are fighting to wipe out Kentucky's illiteracy before the census of 1920 is taken:

"While the countries of Europe rebuild their ruined cities and rehabilitate their industries, it is our privilege in the United States to rehabilitate the lives of our fellow citizens. One of the most necessary and most noble reconstruction tasks is to teach all those who are unable, to read and write. We must do this before the Commonwealth and the nation can make great advancement.

"The teachers and citizens of Kentucky are pioneers in this movement, which has now become nation-wide and has even been attempted in other countries. The movement which they have so unselfishly fostered, demands the best that is in us all at this time when the last battle of this crusade against illiteracy in Kentucky is being waged.

"I honor the moonlight school teachers and set a high value upon the service which they are volunteering to render to humanity and to the State. May that service enrich their own lives as much as it will bless their fellow-men and the great Commonwealth of Kentucky.

"JAMES D. BLACK, Governor.

At times I have suffered severely with kidney complaint. My back often pained me and was lame most all the time. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and greatly annoyed me. When I have been this way, I have always found that a box of Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to cure me of the attack in short order."

SUMMER COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell, of Butler, Tenn., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."

KENTUCKY'S OLDEST MAN TO VISIT BLUE GRASS FAIR.

LEXINGTON, KY., July 24.—John Shell, the oldest man in the world, being credited with from one hundred and sixteen to one hundred and thirty-one years, will be invited to come from his home on Greasy Creek, Leslie county, to the Blue Grass Fair, the first week in September, as the guest of the Fair association.

If he comes, Mr. Shell will celebrate his birthday here. He will be either 116, as he thinks, or 131, as some records show, on Sept. 3. He says that day will find him 116 years old, to the best of his recollection, but Henry Chappell, who lives in the same neighborhood, says he has seen a tax receipt showing Mr. Shell paid taxes in 1809, when he would have had to be 21 years old.

Whether he is 116 or 131, Mr. Shell will be given a rousing reception if he accepts the invitation to come to Lexington.

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

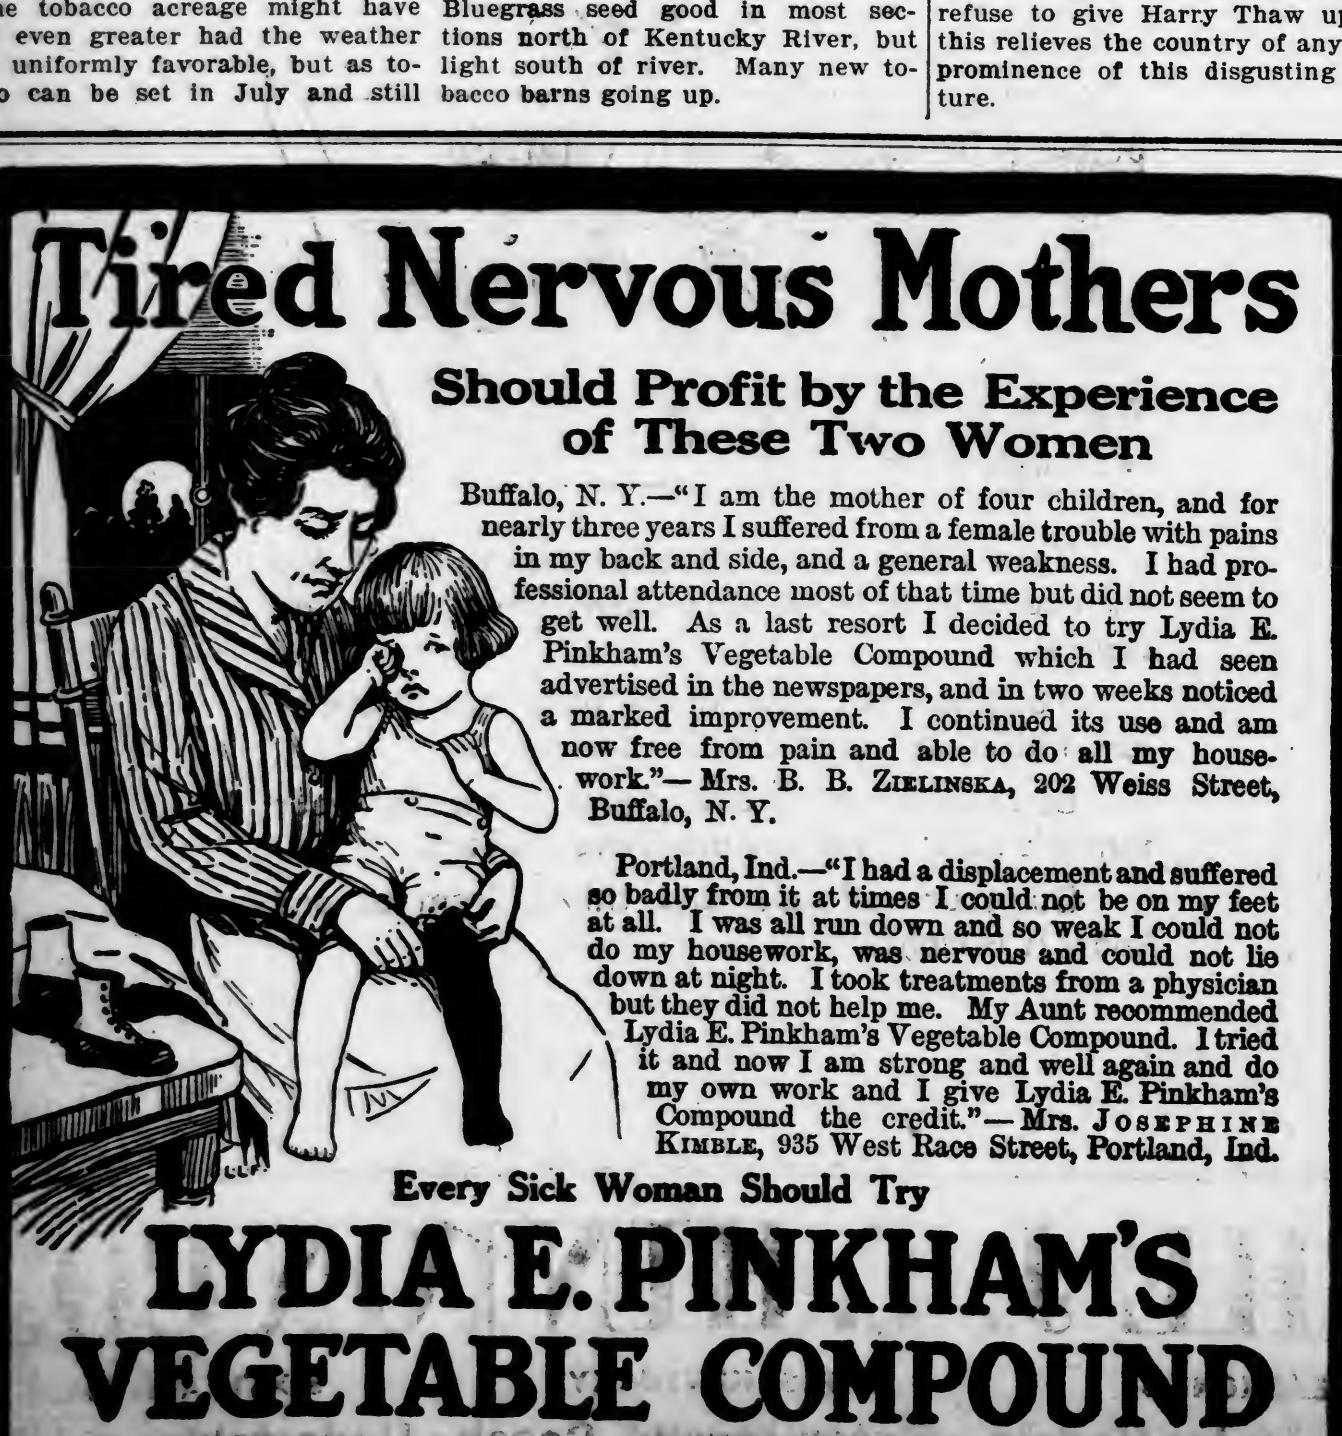

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. ZIELINSKA, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

OLD AGE STARTSWITH YOUR KIDNEYS

HOUSE PASSES DRastic PROHIBITION LAW.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The prohibition enforcement bill, described by members opposing it as drastic enough to invite a Presidential veto, finally passed today by the House.

The vote on the passage of the bill was 287 to 100, with three members voting present.

The vote was taken after a motion by Representative Igoe, Democrat, Missouri, to recommit the bill had been defeated 225 to 136. Nearly every member of the House was in attendance and there was so much noise during the rollcall that Republican Leader Mondell was recorded as supporting the Igoe motion. He was permitted to change his vote.

REAPPOINTED POSTMASTER

Mr. Lee W. Hardman, who has been assistant postmaster at the Austerlitz post office for more than a year, received an official communication from Washington, D. C., notifying him of his appointment of postmaster in charge of the office. Mr. Hardman had made a faithful and competent official, and the patrons of the office are glad to know of his promotion.

AMERICAN FLEET TO PAY MEXICO A VISIT.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Pacific fleet is being rushed to Mexican waters following the report that American seamen from the United States ship Cheyenne were held up and robbed by Mexicans.

The fleet, under command of Admiral Hugh Rodman, Kentuckian, has been officially ordered to the Pacific coast, but it is stated on good authority here that the 200 vessels comprising the flotilla, will cast anchor in several Mexican ports and demand to know "why."

The fleet of warships which left Hampton Roads, were joined Sunday by scores of destroyers and other craft, and by the time Mexican waters are reached will number more than 200 vessels.

In spite of the expected "stop off" in Mexican waters, the fleet is scheduled to arrive at the Panama Canal, July 25, at San Diego, Cal., August 7, and San Francisco, August 17.

Tension in the relations between the United States and Mexico has been increased by the Administration's determination to demand prompt satisfaction from the Mexican Government for the robbery of American seamen on board the launch of the United States steamer, Cheyenne, coupled with President Wilson's intention to press an inquiry into the Carrol murder case.

No attempt is made by Washington officials to disguise the fact that Washington regards the situation as serious.

Mexico has not only earned the enmity and suspicion of the United States, but the allied nations as well, at least two of which (Great Britain and France) have large bills to present against the Mexican Government for destruction of properties owned by their citizens.

For this reason the enforced accounting of Mexico for her misdeeds will not take place merely because the United States desires it. Other nations are equally insistent that steps shall be taken to bring it about. Great Britain, France and Holland all have their claims, which they have tried to press through diplomatic channels.

These countries have a common cause against Mexico, and that Government has answered each of them in the same insolent manner.

The day of reckoning will deal with the many millions of dollars' worth of American property that has been destroyed and the more than 300 American citizens who have been ruthlessly murdered south of the Rio Grande. The United States is certain to demand more than attempted explanation or open apology from the Carranza regime for the continued abuses which American citizens have suffered in Mexican territory.

BURNING BALLOON ALIGHTS ON CHICAGO BANK ROOF

CHICAGO, July 24.—The Illinois Trust and Savings bank, Jackson boulevard and La Salle street, in the heart of Chicago's shopping district, was converted in the twinkling of an eye Monday afternoon from a place of bustling business activity into a scene of death and destruction.

Literally, the fatal bolt came out of a clear sky. Unseen and unsuspected by the bank employees engrossed in their duties, a giant dirigible balloon passing 500 feet above the structure, suddenly burst into flames. Crumpling to earth like a bird wounded in flight, the mammoth airship plunged downward.

Spectators in the street were stricken motionless with horror when they beheld the balloon, dropping with its gas bag afire and witnessed the desperate efforts of the pilot and the four passengers to save themselves by means of their parachutes.

Inside the bank there was nothing to warn the workers of the swiftly-descending doom. It was past the regular banking hours, but the clerks were still busy at their various desks. A shadow fell across the marble rotunda as if a cloud were passing over the huge skylight in the top of the structure. The next instant there was a deafening crash, and the whole building seemed to be enveloped in flames, through which could be heard the screams and groans of the wounded.

The present toll of 11 dead may be increased, as several of the 26 injured are so badly hurt that they are not expected to live. Nine of the 11 killed were employees of the bank, while the other two were passengers in the balloon. One of the latter was Earl Davenport, former sporting writer, who was publicity man for the Chicago amusement park, for which the dirigible was making its flight. Davenport apparently did not get an opportunity to jump, as did the other occupants, for his body was hurled through the bank roof and burned to a crisp. Carl Weaver, mechanic, of Akron, O., the other passenger who lost his life, attempted to leap from the burning machine with his parachute, but was caught in the falling balloon and burned. J. A. Boettner, the civilian pilot of the ill-fated airship, was the only one to land without injury.

SENATOR BECKHAM DEFENDS THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The common sense of the great mass of American people will prevail over the "prophets of evil" who are opposing the League of Nations, Senator Beckham declared in a speech in the Senate. He said that the people do not share fears expressed by Senate critics, but see in the league a means of preventing future wars, all other methods having failed. He predicted ignominious defeat for the Republicans if they make the league an issue in the next Presidential campaign.

"Gee-Whiz! How it Hurts--The Pain in My Foot!"

"Sometimes it is in my arm. Merciful Heaven, how my back hurts in the morning!" It's all due to an overabundance of that poison called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is "keep the kidneys in good order." Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric.

This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night, take heed, before too late. Get Anuric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package.

Abram Renick, of Winchester, asks $1,000 damages from T. B. Dewhurst, of Lexington, on the ground that he refused and still refuses to turn over to him a Buick automobile, purchased in a sale which Renick says was null and void, according to a suit filed Wednesday with the county clerk. The plaintiff says that a Buick car No. 45,674, his property, was taken from his premises and brought to Lexington, and that the defendant purchased the automobile. The sale was null and void, according to the petition, as the party selling had no right to dispose of the car. The plaintiff says that he has made demand for the return of the machine, but that the defendant refused and still refuses to turn over the machine or pay him the value thereof. He asks judgment in the sum of $1,000.

The telegram also stated that they had also booked Paris, Cynthiana, Lexington, Mt. Sterling, Winchester and Frankfort in this immediate section. It was reported here that Flemingsburg had entered into a contract for Redpath, but it is not known definitely whether or not they have."

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

Congressmen may vote for a drastic prohibition enforcement law, and yet have their cellars full of whisky. The vote, of course, is for the benefit of their constituents and the liquor in the cellar, of a certainty, is for their own benefit. This may apply as far as the cellar is concerned, to many in Paris.

One recruit was accepted Wednesday at the Lexington recruiting office. He was Everett Daniels, colored, of Millersburg, who enlisted as a mess attendant. Daniels is the fifth negro who has enlisted from Millersburg during the last three days.

Private Emmett Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fry, of Paris, has received his honorable discharge from the service and returned home. He enlisted in the 149th (the old Second Kentucky) Infantry and was overseas in France, for ten months with the A. E. F.

Sgt. Jesse Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harris, of Paris, has arrived in New York, according to a telegram received by his parents. Lieutenant James Clay Ward, of Paris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward, has arrived at Hoboken, New Jersey, from where he will proceed to a designated demobilization camp for his final discharge from the service. Lieut. Ward is a member of the Fifteenth Machine Gun Battalion of the Fifth Army Division. He went overseas in March, 1918.

Under date of July 23, the Philadelphia, Pa., branch of the Salvation Army reports the safe arrival at that port of the following Bourbon county soldiers, who have been in the overseas service in France several months. All the men were reported as being well, and were going to Camp Dix, New Jersey, where they will be mustered out. The list is as follows: Archie Carlisle, Wm. Small, Felix Pickland, Thos.
